Gentlemen:

Referring to your order of the 14th, we are sending you the monographs desired including Nos. 29 to 39 which you specified only as a continuation.

Might I suggest that by enrolling as an Associate Member you would obtain these for less than they could be purchased for even with the fifteen percent discount which we allow to you as a book dealer. The dues of the Associate Membership are five dollars annually, and if you can enroll as a Library, it would be a very desirable way of handling the situation. As a means to that end, I am enclosing an application card.

Awaiting your response, I am,

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Responding to your letter of December 10th, the invoice for which you ask had previously been sent to your Society. The enclosed is a duplicate of the carbon copy retained in our office. Is there a possibility that it might have been overlooked through having been in the course of payment?

I note that you have forwarded our suggestion that the Library enroll as an Associate Member, and as yet we have not heard from them.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
